VARIETIES.

—James Hall, who in 1838 commenced the publication of the Chautauque Gazette, in Frederick, died in Louisville, Ky., on the 1st inst., in the 78th year of his age.—A soft coal bed has been discovered at Spring Creek, a few miles from Corry. It crops out with a thickness of about three feet. A company is being formed to work it.—The Erie Observer says a project is on foot for the establishment of another daily in this city, to be independent in politics. The stock is to be taken by Republicans and Democrats, and as nearly equally divided as possible.—The Oyster season is now fairly inaugurated and the fish to Goodman's popular restaurant is rapidly increasing. With "Mike" as master of ceremonies, you can have the luxury in any desired style on the shortest notice, and they will be fresh and palatable.—The Evening Mail is the title of a fresh newspaper enterprise in New York, of which Chas. H. Sweeney is editor and proprietor. Mr. S. was the originator of the Evening Gazette, which obtained an immense popularity under his management. He possesses extraordinary ability and is assisted by some of the sprightliest writers in the metropolis.—The Central Railroad Company is preparing to uniform its employees, in accordance with the act of the last Legislature. The conductors will wear coats and pants of dark blue cloth, a broadcloth, the coat trimmed with brass buttons.
The cap will be of blue cloth, with two bands of gold lace, the lower band to be an inch and a half in width. The brakemen will probably wear a "regulation" cap only for the present.—The Republican Club organization of last evening have but a few days to work, and should improve the time accordingly. Titusville ought to give the straight Republican ticket fully 150 majority, and Lowry ought to have a unanimous vote for Senator. The Republican candidates for the Legislature are both "sincerely" pledged in favor of the new county, and they will abide by their pledges. It would be folly to favor any other candidate upon a different supposition.—We warn our Republican friends in Vanango county to be on the look out against impostors of every sort. The recent "temperance meeting" dodge got up at Franklin in the interest of the Democratic ticket is a sample of the unscrupulous efforts which are being put forth to decrease the Republican majorities. Republicans must particularly beware of bogus election tickets which have already been put in circulation in various sections of the county. For example, there is one ticket containing the names of all the Republican candidates except Justice Connolly, whose Democratic opponent is nicely sandwiched in, to deceive careless voters. Spurn all such impostations.—The Weekly Herald.
Subscribe for the Titusville WEEKLY HERALD, published every Thursday at the office of the MORNING HERALD. It contains one-third more reading matter than any other paper in Crawford county, and as an exponent of the oil interest is equalled by no paper in the world. The WEEKLY HERALD is thoroughly Republican in politics.TERMS: $2.00 per year; three copies, $5.00; ten copies, $15.00; sixteen copies, $30.00.Subscription price of the MORNING HERALD, published daily, with latest telegraph and cable dispatches, $10.00 per year; $2.50 three months; $5.00 six months. Address Bloss Bros. & Co., Titusville, Pa.New Well on the Tallman Farm.—Saturday last, Sept. 21st, the owners of the Connoy Well, on the Tallman Farm, commenced pumping and encountered, for two or three days, the usual amount of breakdowns, but day before yesterday the oil began to show itself, gradually increasing, till it is now throwing out close on to one hundred barrels per day. This well is about six rods west of the Pink well, and is the first one owned by the Tallman family, who own nearly all the working interest in richly oil lands in this place of good fortune, and we hope he may enjoy it for a long time.UNION REPUBLICAN MEETING AT CITY HALL.

Speech by Hon. M. B. Lowry.

The Republican Candidates for Representatives Pledged for a New County.The Ticket Enthusiastically Endorsed!The first Republican meeting of the campaign was held last evening at City Hall. The announcement was very brief, and only commendatory of the organization of a Republican campaign club, but the timely arrival of Senator Lowry afforded an opportunity for an earnest public expression in his favor, and the meeting was largely attended by members of both parties.Brown's Cornet Band appeared on the balcony of City Hall, and played several popular airs, and at eight o'clock the Hall was completely filled.The meeting was organized by electing W. W.
Bloss, Chairman, and John C. Bryan and H. L.
Hurlburt, Secretaries. Col. L. D. Rogers, of Franklin, being present, was loudly called for, and favored the audience with a brief but earnest and sensible address, in the course of which he advocated the return of Mr. Lowry to the Senate as a matter of the first consideration to his old constituency.Mr. Lowry was then introduced, and spoke substantially as follows:MR. CHAIRMAN AND FELLOW-CITIZENS:—You have met tonight to organize for the most important campaign of your day or mine.As time throws his yearly cycle into eternity, the progress of free suffrage increases, and will increase until all men stand equal before the law. Especially is this true of this land and this day, until reconstruction is accomplished, until the late bondsmen are left to the free use of the ballot, without tyranny from master, caste or President, there can be no quiet on our political waters, no rest for the mariners that would save the Ship of State. Our country's trials are, I suppose, a necessary punishment for our country's sins; and God in His providence is punishing the whole land, North, South, East and West, with doubt and dread, with debt, taxation, and bankruptcy for withholding justice. And now the head of our nation seems bent upon reversing this people set free by the grim laws of war, and forcing upon them and us another season of bloodshed. Affairs at Washington to-night have a more bloody look than at any time since Sumter was fired upon. If the election in Pennsylvania on the second Tuesday in October can be construed into a justification of "My Policy," Andrew Johnson will no doubt issue a proclamation ordering elections for members of Congress in all the rebel States—under regulations for the exclusion of all except rebels from the polls. War, immolation, blood and frat-ricide will be the inevitable result. Every vote cast next month against any Republican is a vote for Andrew Johnson and his murderous crew and against Congress, in violation of the hope of the country. Every effort will be made by the raising of local divisions, and the sowing of discord and distrust among our people, to distract, divide and conquer us. Calumny and misrepresentation and the raising of local jeal-ousies are the favorite warfare of our enemies.In my own country, the weak kneed, and how-lards and sunken-eyed Republicans who are always against us as a mad dog hates water, aided by a blinding mist, organized a terrible fight against me, and still they are miserable; but I fear them not. They have opposed me six years to no little purpose that they cannot in the two weeks left them steal away all of the four thousand majority of this District, upon which I have a right to rely.It is not for myself but my people that I appeal to them to rally at the polls, for the general elect, the Supreme Judiciary and the country. Six years I have labored in the Senate, with undirected, pressing upon the people of the State the wants and growing importance of my District, and I say it not in vainglory, I believe that the public men of the State and nation are more strongly bound to Erie through me than through any other agency, while he denounced press has but drawn upon her the reproach and sorrow of all whose friendship is worth a rub to her or her commerce, and every vote she gives against me is a vote for Andrew Johnson and the devil, and will prove, as those of the past hour have been rather expensive luxuries.It returned by your suffrages I will regain the only Senator representing four cities, and I tell them all they had better select good Mayors and honest Councilmen, for on all measures where the mayors and council ask legislation they will be apt to get it. Erie has chosen your old neighbor, Orange Noble, for Mayor. We have unbounded faith in him, but let the Erie people show him six years as they have me, and you would find some to believe he had seven heads and ten horns. The councilmen of Erie by the sweat of their faces, and I will not act against them at the instance of any mere faction.
Erie and Crawford have an enlarged mind.The effort to throw ridicule upon this measure has often failed but never discouraged me. Thoroughly acquainted with the usual from the day it was dipped until the present hour, I can see nothing impossible in the scheme if the holders of its bonds prove themselves the practical men I have always given them the credit of being.The Atlantic and Great Western Railway is bound by the terms of its charter to go to the harbor of Erie, and the law as it is, and not as they will probably seek to make it, is what they must expect to live up to.Your New County bill shall pass and the question shall go to the people with my prayer for your deliberation. Both Republican nominees for the House of Representatives assure me that they will put it through the House as I send it to them from the Senate. One of them is here to-night, and letters from the other containing the most satisfactory pledges are in the house.They are men upon whom you may rely, and my own judgment is that it would be wiser as well as easier to trust them. I have never been the candidate of uncertain principles, and in the issue to arise during the term of the next Senator from this district I have not hesitated and I will not hesitate to avow my position so far as it is possible to foresee those issues. I have stood for six years in the Senate battling for the rights of men and to hold in check incorporated rascality. It is my pride, during that time, not to have given one vote on any political question which does not now, if it did not then, meet the approval of every Radical man and paper in the State, always excepting the Erie papers, and they by their indecent and venomous abuse, have scored me without mercy, but not as the result shows, without profit to me, for they have disgusted thinking people, and won me the sympathy of many a true Radical in Erie and Erie county.My enemies have tried to injure me by misrepresenting a letter written to Protestant General Fry for the release of some political prisoners confined in a lockhouse prison at Harrisburg in the spring of 1865.The Protestant Marshal did not find time to read the letter, but President Lincoln did and ordered the release not only of those in whose behalf it was written, but of all others confined for nobetter reason. On the 29th of January last the letter became public and was printed in No. 10 of the appendix to the Legislative Record. Here it is:SENATE CHAMBER, HARRISBURG, March 5, 1865.
Present Marshal General Fry called at a building on the river bank, near the armory hospital in this city. There found twenty-seven Pennsylvanians undergoing confinement in a prison in which, if your horse was stalled for single night, you would shiver from the cold and the dampness indicated. These men, I humbly submit, are undergoing this long, cruel and unnecessary confinement by the order of the Department at which you stand the responsible officer. Only in the name of the Constitution and Bill of Rights, but in the teeth of an act of Congress of March 3, 1863, passed for the purpose of protecting such citizens as these, and directing in express terms that you shall not detain them, but send them over to the civil government for trial.I herewith attach a list of the names of these men, and I repeat again, with special emphasis, that among them all there is not a deserter nor a traitor. They are brave citizens, brave and long imprisoned by military power, in violation of law and good conscience.The charges against these men are, that they bonded themselves together in the county of Crawford, in this State, in secret organization for the purpose of resisting the draft and voting the Democratic ticket. In doing this, they did a great wrong, but not half so great as you do: for the punishment which you inflict is unlawful, and it is still better for the country that they be set free than that they be kept in prison.These men were acted upon the advice of leaders whom they had long followed, and who are their superiors in education, in moral, political and in social position. The voices of the leaders was, unhesitatingly, to secure their votes, unscrupulous as to the manner they obtained them, and regardless of the consequences it might produce.They truly are these men now undergoing this unlawful confinement, are not imprisoned because the salvation of the country demands it, and this alone could be your justification and warrant to posterity for violently depriving any man of his liberty, without due process of law.On the other hand, supposing this was a criminal act, and the doors of civil courts were closed, and only those of military courts were open to try them, would you punish them as you do? You punish them as you do? You punish them as you do?
You punish them as you do? You punish them as you do?I appeal to you, therefore, to hand these poor fellowmen over to the civil authorities, or to do what will best serve the country—tell them all to "go and sin no more."The right of trial by jury will not do to be tampered with. It is the bulwark of a nation's hope, and nothing but jeopardy to the life of the nation can justify its sacrifice. A government that for light or transient causes violates law itself, excites revolution in the hearts of its subjects.I do not denounce "arbitrary arrest," but I do denounce the arbitrary arrest of our country's citizens. It is probable that more could have been done, with propriety, but I declare my conviction that the men who were brought before me from among the best public men, and the best of the origin in the Protestant Marshal's office of the 10th District, nor in your own. There is not one of these prisoners whose person, in his cabin in the land, nor in his cabin in the land, nor in his cabin in the land.Two of these men—Jacob W. Thom and Samuel J. Fry, appeared to me, the most worthy of the whole lot, and they were taken to the tribunal, now sitting at Harrisburg, and where authority to try and punish these citizens, who have no military law, and are subject to no military law, and are subject to no military law.The testimony which I attach, and which I submit to you, is the most honest and true testimony that has been given in this case. It is the testimony of a man who is not a party to the case, and who is not a party to the case.One of these men is Patrick Curry, one of the best men of the Crawford county. Democracy,
